

We invite you to join our Carpenter's Club!

*"We are laborers together with God; you are God's field, God's building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it."
1 Corinthians 3:9-10*

Carpenter's Club is a giving campaign that engages individuals and families who wish to provide ongoing financial support for Rutherford County Area Habitat's work to eliminate poverty housing in Rutherford County. By becoming a member of our Carpenter's Club, you make our growth possible by providing a predictable, constant stream of funds for every house we build.

Members receive

- * Our quarterly newsletter, Welcome Home, which features our partner families and their Habitat journeys, all home dedications, and information about our generous sponsors.
- * Our weekly online newsletter where you can get information about our volunteer needs and upcoming events.
- * A monthly pledge reminder and receipt letter for your records.

To Join

- * Complete and return the form below.
- * Membership is for a one year commitment.
- * Payments can be made by check, credit card, or a monthly automatic bank draft.

For more information about donating, please call Terri at 890-5877 ext. 4 or email terri@rchfh.org.
